ELEGANT FURNITURE
ESTABLISHMENT.

Those of our readers who have a taste for, or feel an interest in rich and elegant house Furniture, will be gratified by a visit to the new rooms, just opened by W. TOUSSAINT, 541 Washington Street. The articles are all of his own manufacture, and are unsurpassed in their beauty and workmanship. Also, Plain Furniture,

An old bachelor received on St. Valentine's Day the following, written in a delicate female hand:

"Returning home at close of day,
Who gently chides my long delay,
And by my side delights to stay?

Who sets for me my easy-chair,
Fixes the room with neatest care,
And lays my slippers ready there?

Who regulates the evening fire,
Piles the blazing fuel higher,
And bids me draw my chair still nigher?

When sickness comes to rack my frame,
And grief disturbs my troubled brain,
Who sympathizes with my pain? NOBODY.

RICHARDS, the famous Dock square Clothier, having purchased largely of the bankrupt stock of a well-known wholesale clothing house in this city at about 25 per cent less than cost of manufacture, is now offering the greatest bargains ever before presented to buyers of clothing. These goods are made from the best styles of American and foreign fabrics, and in style and point of workmanship, are unequalled by the best custom work, and are sold at much less price than is being demanded for the most inferior garments. Remember the place—Richards' Old Wooden Building, opposite West End Faneuil Hall, 24 & 25 Dock Square, and give him an immediate call.

The Peruvian Syrup has cured thousands who were suffering from Dyspepsia, Debility, &c., &c.
