COPY

FROM A LETTER TO F. L. BATES FROM MRS. C. E. CAMERON, CHICAGO. ILL.

Jan. 3, 1921.

Mrs. Charles A. Cameron,
#2255 South Park Ave.
Chicago, Ill.

My Dear Mrs. Cameron:--

I have and greatly appreciate your letter of the 22nd ult., and in reply at my earliest convenience, to thank you for the same and the courtesies shown Mr. Black recently, who is associated with me in securing the date for the publication of my final edition of the escape and suicide of John Wilkes Booth.

I was greatly surprised to learn from Mr. Black that you had not received a copy of my book many years ago, or shortly after the publication of the same, and am sending you under separate cover - by this mail, a copy, which I am sure you will read with interest, as you know much of the facts and circumstances of Booth's escape.

(Signed) F. L. Bates