Col T Allston Brown

Dear Sir.

In reply to the inquiries you make. I would state I was born in Philadelphia April 2nd 1844. First appeared upon the stage in St. Louis Mo at De Bar's Opera House March 13th 1865 in the character of "Kate Hardcastle" Stoops to Conquer. I was married in St. Louis June 15th 1868 to Mr G.W. Riddell

Respectfully

signed- Blanche Booth (De Bar)

Daughter of John Wilkes Booth

My dear friend Mrs Rogers,

I write you to learn if possible Aunt Rosalie's address. I have not heard from her directly in over two years.

My dear mother died very suddenly of paralysis of the heart the seventh of last november. I was home at the time with my children. I cannot tell you the shock it was to me for we had no warning. She retired to rest as cheerful and apparently as well as ever. I wrote to Auntie at the time but received no answer. I hope I hear of it from you.

I lost my youngest child - a beautiful boy sixteen months old last April which wrung my heart. I have had many trials but no sorrows such as I have suffered this last year.

I am engaged here at the People's Theatre for the season in the stock to alternate the leads with Marie Wellesley.

My husband is in St Louis for the summer. I have my two little daughters with me. I wish you could see my beautiful children.

I hope this will find

you and your family
enjoying good health
With love to you all
Sincerely Yours
Ogarita
