26 (Bates p. 101 - Leaving town)

LEONARD S. ROBY, Of

Near Bryantown

June 3, 1865 C.T.Page 202.

Testified that he went to Bryantown about 3 o'clock in the afternoon of the 15th, asked the soldiers there questions about the assassination, but did not learn until before he left that evening who the assassin was , when the information was given him by Dr. George Mudd.

(There is no mention of trouble getting through the lines at Bryantown)
