Dear Mr Coomer:

Your letter of June 3rd to Mr Cameron has been referred to the writer.

Have you read the series of articles already published in the Dearborn Independent on the assassination of Abraham Lincoln and the disposition of John Wilkes Booth? If not, we would be very glad to send these copies to you. If you care to submit the story which you have written on the matter, we shall be glad to enter into a detailed discussion with you covering the points you write about.

Very truly yours
