J. P. REED
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW
EMMETT, IDAHO

Emmett, Idaho, March 19, 1930.

Hon. F. L. Black,
Dearborn, Mich.

Dear Mr. Black:

Under another cover, I am returning to you the copies of the "Dearborn Independent" containing your last five articles on the Booth Myth. I regret that they are a little frayed, due to so many persons coming to my house to read them. These were persons who had read the Bates book, and who had "seen the body". However, you will find them yet is pretty good shape.

I feel myself under the greatest of obligations to you, not only for loaning me these papers, but also for having made the painstaking investigation preparatory to writing the exposure.

Again thanking you most cordially, I remain,

Yours truly,

J. P. Reed.
