From A letter signed by F. L. Bates, of Chicago, Ill. Dec. 11, 1920.

The Camerons are now living, to-wit: Chas. A. Cameron and wife, Josephine Cameron, 2255 South Park Ave., Chicago, Ill. Apartment 46, at which place I called at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and found them temporarily out of the city, according to statements of other tenants in the flat; but at that time left in their letter box my card and note calling their attention to my having been at their home, and I have just now mailed to Mrs. Cameron a long letter requesting that she furnish me with letters and any other items she may have of Booth, together with any written statements of her knowledge of Booth and send to me at my adress at Memphis, Tenn., at her very earliest convenience; Now that we have their definite location, we may reasonably expect to get what we want. I have just mailed a letter to Mr. Penniman, asking him to furnish me with the old trunk and its contents, and for a meeting with him at such time and place as he shall name at an early date. I have also, by this mail, sent a letter to Mr. R. W. Banks, Lamar, Mo., for an early meeting with him, for the purpose of getting such information as we desire, to be mailed to me at Memphis, Tenn.
