Dear Bill:

Douglas C McMurtrie has asked permission to reprint in book form the articles on Lincoln which I wrote a number of years ago for the Dearborn Independent. McMurtrie's name is familiar to me in connection with the history of printing, but I know nothing about him and his publishing business. What do you know about him and his organization?

Mr Wright probably has told you about our afternoon together. I don't know what he actually thought about being dragged around all over the plant but he seemed to enjoy it.

Sincerely yours,

F L BLACK
