Mr. F. L. Black,
The Dearborn Publishing Co.,
Dearborn, Michigan.

Dear Mr. Black:

It was good of you to send me the copies of the Dearborn Independent containing your Booth articles and the copy also containing some Lincoln articles by my good friend, Dr. Barton. I referred to his Lincoln book in a review of Carl Sandburg's book, which I have just sent off to the Yale Review. I wish I had seen your articles on Booth myth before I sent a brief unsigned review of Bernie Babcock's "Booth and the Spirit of Lincoln" to the Saturday Review of Literature, a couple of weeks ago. Mr. Canby, the editor sent me the book, asking for a paragraph review. As a Lincoln student for some years I had kept tract of the desultory accounts of the Booth myth, and would have written a reference to your critical articles into my review, or notice.

I shall be glad to autograph your copy of my study of Lincoln, upon its receipt.

I have been responsible, this year, for having the Dearborn Independent placed in the county library and in the college library, and have asked my students in a course in journalism to read it religiously. I have not been able to do this myself as faithfully as I would like to do, owing to a good deal of literary or book work I have had on my hands. But I regard the paper as ~~an~~ exceedingly valuable for students and all others to read.

Very sincerely yours,

L. E. Robinson x
