Dear Mr. Black:

With reference to our conversation and your letter about Jos. Zisgen, permit me to say that Zisgen died January 8, 1914, in the National Soldiers' Home of Maine. That address will reach the home. There is an independent post office there by the name of Togus, Maine. Zisgen went to the home in 1882. He was discharged from the army December 13, 1865, and re-enlisted from February 25, 1867, to March 29, 1869. He had a pension from April 27, 1871, at which time he was at the Soldiers' Retreat, Ward Island.

In regard to Wilson D. Kenzie, on the 15th day of May, 1926, he was residing at 315 - 8th Street, Beloit, Wisconsin. He is 82 years old, almost helpless, and receives a pension of $72 per month. He first enlisted in Company A, 6th Michigan Infantry, on August 20, 1861. He was discharged in 1862 for the purpose of re-enlisting on November 13, 1862, at New Orleans, in the First United States Artillery, Company F. He was made a Sergeant July 24, 1865, and discharged at Fort Trumbull, Connecticut, November 13, 1865. He was at New Orleans in the fall of 1862, just as he stated, and soon thereafter he went to Washington, D. C., according to the statement he filed in his pension papers, but I imagine he was stationed at Fort Morton, Virginia, very close to Washington, under Lieutenant Hartman P. Norris. I will have to go to the Adjutant General's office and ascertain the ~~number~~ movements of his regiment before I can be able to state definitely just where he was stationed. I hope to have this for you at a little later date.

As to Col. Charles G. Holpine, he seems to have been an Acting Adjutant General of Volunteers, and I believe was a brevet Brigadier General. He was in Washington from August, '62 to November 24, '62. His resignation was accepted July 31, 1864. He died August 3, 1868. I will have to do some further checking on him at the War Department and give you definite information. I take it, however, that the information regarding Zisgen is all that you want, and will check on these others at my earliest opportunity.

Yours very truly,

F. Hunter Creech.
