we subscribe to about 10 papers + magazines and the Independent stands at the head - always interesting
The article about John Wilkes Booth especially so. I remember well Apl 15 1865 - what a hatred for Booth was aroused deep down and deadly - He murdered the man who would have been the best friend of the south - reconstruction of later years and the dreadful carpet bag governments of states elected by ignorant negroes and worse whites would have had Lincolns unyielding opposition

And the two brave gentlemen who aspired to fame years afterward by claiming to be Booth - well - "it is To laugh" they waited wisely !!

With $100,000.00 reward offered and the severe not to say savage, E. M. Stanton behind it and the USA behind him dont let any one lose sleep for fear the crippled assassin overtaken was not John Wilkes Booth

Yours
Chas B Allyn
