Dear Mr Shepherd:

Pardon me for the delay in answering your kind letter of April 10th. It certainly is encouraging for the private in the ranks of the writing game to receive a kind word from such seasoned warriors as you.

I know that you are rather close to Harpers and wonder if they would be interested in looking over the manuscript of my book on the Assassination and the Booth Myths. I would not care to send it to them unless they would give it at least some consideration.

Very truly yours
