People passing in & out of Washington

Surratt Trial Vol 1

P 118 - Surratt ~~during~~ in the years 1864 and 1865 "passed repeatedly from Richmond to Washington, from Washington to Canada"

P 162 - Mrs Surratt and Weichman went to Surrattville from Washington in a buggy and returned between 8 and 9 O'clock

213 & 214 ~~PP 124~~ "In the fall of 1864 a gentleman went to Richmond to consult with Confederate authorities in regard to the disposition of the Cotton crop. On his return with others he saw President Lincoln and asked for a pass to return South - The President refused saying that "they had been there once," and he guessed they could go again."

Eddy Martin, a New York Cotton broker was employed by these parties to go to Richmond and had no trouble leaving Washington for Richmond via Port Tobacco in January 1865

"SPIRAX"
THE
NEW BINDING
PROCESS
Pat. U.S.A. 1.516.932-1924

P 181 - Slaue operated out of Washington to southern Maryland towns.

1864 -

P 198 - John Lee - detective - Washington
"the men [detectives] were sent around looking after people who were carrying medicines through the lines. Sometimes there would be fifty notices about town and sometimes there are four notices of people running the blockade, carrying quinine, Morphine, etc." -

P 199 Saw Surratt on the road going across the Eastern Branch bridge. Could not say whether he belonged in the city or outside but knew that he was supposed to be a rebel. didn't bother him as he had no orders ~~about to~~ to do so

Q. "When you were informed that such a person was carrying passengers or medicines through the lines, was it not your duty to ascertain who they were and where they belonged, without any special orders?
A "Not particularly".

P 200 - Surratt wore no disguise
Q Were you not on the lookout for other men suspected of going through the lines?
A. No Sir; there were a great many men pointed out that I never paid any particular attention to."

P 217 Brooks Stabler - Charge livery Stable - Hired a horse and buggy to Surratt March 25 1865
Brought back March 26 by a stranger with a note from Surratt in which he said, "As business will detain me for a few days in the country I thought I would send your team back".

P 275 - 1865 - Prince George's County and Charles County stage started from The Pennsylvania House on "C" Street, between Four-and-a-half and Sixth - The hotel keeper, John Greenawalt testified that a great many passengers & going to and from those counties came to his hotel -
The stage refered to went down to Surrattsville, "T.B." and Leonardtown and Port Tobacco
The Stage Offices for those places on the road was in the hotel

---

(There were different stages to Surrattsville and Port Tobacco which started at the same time, 8 o'clock - It was the same line, although there were two stages, both ran on the same road as far as "T.B.", returning to Washington between 5 and 6.

"SPIRAX"
THE
NEW BINDING
PROCESS
Pat. U.S.A. 1.516.932-1924

Lloyd - Pp 276 —

Kept Surratt'sville Tavern Dec 1864 - Oct 1865

Testified that "persons passing backwards and forwards very frequently stopped there in the winter with servants."

Testified P279
Saw Surratt about April 1, 1865 "on the stage about four or five miles this side of Surrattsville, returning to Washington, While I was returning home. He was on the stage and I was in my buggy."

Mrs Surratt and W. eating at Uniontown Tuesday before assin - in one of those "light narrow buggies"

P281 Mrs Surratt at Tavern with W. about 6 o'clock

P 330 - Booker - clerk Nat'l Hotel - Booth made several trips into Maryland on the occasion of his stay at the hotel beginning Feb 22 '65. to Feb 28th

PP 374-375 - Atzerodt at Surratts. Washington house around 2 o'clock latter part of January to assin -

"Sic Semper" - "Freedom for the South"

Surratt Trial Vol I P 124 - 125 also P 488

P 343 - Card found at Mrs Surratts with "Sic Semper tyrannis" on it.

Look up -

Howell
Mrs Slater

| Blockade runners & dispatch bearers

Stephen F Cameron

"SPIRAX"
THE
NEW BINDING
PROCESS
Pat. U.S.A. 1.516.932-1924

Lincolns carriage in front of theater.

Surratt p 185 - "The Driver sat on the Carriage".

Surratt p 315 -
Saw Booth on Stage Springfield Mass, before Oct 1864.

---

p 324 - Samuel K. Chester testified was with JWB comes 14th & Broadway N.Y.C on Friday, one week previous to assn - April 7th. 1865

---

p 375
Booth saw Surratt in early part of Feb 1865

p 401 - Wire Booth at N.Y. March 13, 1865 to McLaughlin at Baltimore -

p 381 - Booth wired Weichmann from N.Y. March 23 '65

p 401 - also March 27, 1865

Chair - Surratt p 327

Spelling of Weichmann - p 405 & 369.

p 406 - "James R. O'Beirne, Major 22d. Regiment V.R.C., Provost Marshal D.C."

"SPIRAX"
THE
NEW BINDING
PROCESS
Pat. U.S.A. 1.516.932-1924

People passing in & out of Wash -
Surratt Vol 1

383 | Refers to carriage - 2 horses driving
384 | away with Mrs Surratt, John S. & Mrs
Slater (Confed. Spy?) March 25, 1865 - about 8 o'clock in the morning and Mrs Surratt returning on the "stage that runs Bryantown, or Port Tobacco,
to Washington, and delivers passengers
at the Pennsylvania House",
P 384 Horses & carriage driven to Mrs Surratt's
Washington place the next day by a
Dr. Wyvil who returned them to Brooks Stabler, liveryman.

* Thos N. Conrad

P 386. Mrs Surratt drove to Surrattsville - returned in the evening - with her brother, Mr Jenkins -

April 11, 1865
P 389-390 - Weichmann drove Mrs Surratt in a buggy to Surrattsville in the morning, they returned that evening between 5 & 6 o'clock

P 391. W & Mrs S again drove to Surrattsville in a buggy afternoon of April 14th - 392 Saw Pickets on road about 3 miles from Washington - Mrs S was informed would be withdrawn about 8 o'clock
Returned, left Surrattsville about 6.30, passed thru pickets - arrived home 9 P.M. - Passed touch light parade horse Sled

"SPIRAX" THE NEW BINDING PROCESS Pat. U.S.A. 516.922-1924

takes 2 or 2½ hours to drive from Surratsville to Mrs S. Washington home.

P 396 - Herold lived in a house at the Navy yard -
this would be near the bridge -

P 489 - Atzerodt came on the stage
from Marlboro or Piscataway
"the stages come from both those places"

David Barry -
S. Vol II P 751-758 - Pirates

Stephen F Cameron - Confed Spy -
P 801

Plays Driven over Bridge
Surratt V 2 P 892