JOHN W. STARR, JR.
MILLERSBURG, PA.

Millersburg, Pa., September 30, 1925.

To Lincoln Students and Collectors,
Private and Public Libraries:

As a subscriber to the recent admirable and long-needed Bibliography of Lincolniana compiled by Mr. Oakleaf, I have been making a check of my collection and have discovered approximately two hundred or two hundred and fifty items which are not listed therein, neither are they to be found in the Fish Bibliography. They are all strictly Lincolniana, following the line as laid down by Judge Fish and Mr. Oakleaf.

It has occurred to me that possibly others may be interested in securing a list of additional Lincolniana, hence this circular letter. If I can get a hundred subscribers to a supplementary Bibliography covering those items in my collection not listed in the aforementioned authorities, I shall be glad to undertake the work of preparing and publishing such a work; to be gotten up in substantial form, an edition of one hundred numbered and signed copies, to sell for $5.00 each, to cover cost of publication, time and labor, etc.; no money down.

If any references are desired, would refer you to Mr. Oakleaf himself, who has known me for twenty years, or any of the following Lincoln authorities: Rev. Wm. E. Barton, Dr. L. D. Carman, Chas. T. White, Charles W. Moores, Ida M. Tarbell, Frederick Ray Risdon, etc.

Sincerely yours,

JOHN W. STARR, Jr.
