List of material received from H L McClinton. Articles are to be used in connection with research work on John Wilkes Booth. There were two copies of each article, one negative and one positive copy.

The New York Tribune, May 30-July 10, 1865 — 28 pages

The conspiracy trial

The New York Dramatic Mirror, Feb 26, 1916 — 1 page

Story of Booth at school

The New York Telegraph, May 23, 1909 — 2 pages

Story by Deery

The New York Herald, June 27, 1909 — 2 pages

Recollections of J W B by Sir Charles Wyndham

The New York Sun, April 27, 1913 — 2 pages

Story by Capt S H Beckwith

The New York Sun, Dec, 1902 — 14 pages

Series of articles by Samuel Arnold

The New York American, Feb 7, 1909 — 2 pages

Stories of Lincoln

New York Times, July 12, 1936 — 1 page

Article about the diary of Edmund Got

Misc

Story of Booth tossing the call boy a $5 gold piece. From paper of 1885
Photostat of playbill announcing the appearance of Booth at the Mary Provost Theater in New York