Dear Mr Starr:

Under separate cover I am sending you four issues which you haven't listed. Our Librarian advises that several Lincoln articles appeared from 1920 to 1924 but the issues are completely exhausted. Heavy printing of Lincoln material, however, has been since 1924.

I am awfully glad to learn of your new book. Tell Dodd, Mead and Company to reserve a copy for me. Naturally I shall want it inscribed. Unfortunately, I have been unable to do much Lincoln research during the past few months. I am constantly gathering material, especially along the line of the Booth controversy. As soon as I get time to put it into shape, we will turn out some more articles on it.

Sincerely yours
