Page 6

~~Lincoln Papers~~

(separate sheet)

~~May 3, 1865~~ ~~Pur S. B. 82-83~~

(1)

W. H. Walton, a newspaperman, interviewed Lucas, the Negro referred to by Mr Bates as Lewis, who was told by ~~Lucas~~ him that on the trip to Port Royal Both seemed much fatigued, and laid down in the bottom of the wagon and slept at intervals". ~~Walton for the Washington~~ This was printed in the Washington newspapers May 3, 1865 just a few days after the ride, while all details were fresh in Lucas' mind-

(Lincoln Scrap Book Pages 82-83)

Nothing was said about a load of furniture and chickens piled on Both-

separate sheet

Mr Mason's Story agrees with one written up the Washington D.C. newspapers
by W.H. Walton, May 3, 1865 Lincoln Scrap Book - Congressional Library - Pages 82 and 83
Mr Walton obtained the details from interviews with Lucas the negro, Dr Stewart, and Mrs Lusenberry a few days after the events occurred -

George Alfred Townsend, who wrote many of the newspaper stories of the assassination at the time in 1884 in the Century for April of that year told how Booth and Herold crossed the Potomac and reached Port Conway. interviewed In 1900 O.H. Oldroyd ~~visited~~ people all along the route of Booth and Herold's escape and received the same stone from those he could find still living. ~~to~~ (The assassination of Abraham Lincoln, by O.L. Oldroyd. page 302 et seq.)