John C Bartlett
Trial of John H. Surratt p 892, July 20th, 1867

Testified:

That during April 1865 he was driving a stage daily from Washington to T.B. and back leaving Washington at 8 A.M. and returning between 5 and 6 P.M. That there were no pickets on that road beyond Good Hope during April and that on Friday the 14th he did not see any pickets on the road after he left the bridge and none until he reached the bridge upon returning, that the next day pickets were stationed beyond the bridge.
