Dear Mr Eisenschiml:

Your letter of October 4, addressed to the Dearborn Independent, has been referred to me.

Any rights that the Dearborn Independent had in the publication of the articles has reverted to me since the discontinuance of that publication as a national magazine. I am delighted to give you permission to quote from the articles which appeared under my name from February 7 to May 2, 1925 with the understanding, of course, that acknowledgment shall be made to me as the author.

If there is any other assistance I can give you in this connection, please advise me.

Very truly yours,

F L Black
