Dear Mr Starr:

I have your letter of May 19th and was sorry to hear that I had missed your answer last fall. However, since it may be sometime before I have an opportunity to call on you I would appreciate tremendously having the loan of your scrap book. If you will send it by registered mail I will keep it but a few days and return to you in the same menner, and also reimburse you for the postage expended. While I have other stories on the Mrs Payne marriage, I haven't seen the particular one you mention.

Thanking you, I am

Most cordially yours

F L Black
