Dear Mr Rainey:

I have located the other pictures and am sending them herewith by registered mail.

Thank you very much for your interesting letter of January 31st. I remember with considerable pleasure the trip I made from Washington down to the Garrett place. When one gets into the Bates claims pro and con there is a tendency to work day and night on them.

The second lot of pictures I am sending are as follows:

One Sheet - Ferry landings at Port Royal and Port Conway
" " - John Wilkes Booth - his signature below
" " - Ruins of Garrett's barns - from Harper's Weekly
" " - Prints of Booth leaping from the box and crossing the stage
" " - Two recent view of Garrett house
" " - The President's Box, Ford's Theater
" " - The Surratt Tavern as it is today
" " - The stage of Ford's Theater
" " - Drawings of the Garrett place
" " - Three prints of relics in War Department
" " - Signatures on D E George's last letter and two wills
" " - The Booth Burial Ground
" " - Photostats of J W Booth signature written by D George. J W Booth's own signature. D George's signatures to will and check.

Sincerely,

F. L. Black
