My dear Mr. Black:

On March 26 you wrote acknowledging the brief note which I had sent about the Lincoln car down in Richmond, Virginia which carried the name of Thomas Jefferson, and in that letter you asked for my reaction toward the Eisenschiml book.

Possibly by this time you have seen Lincoln Lore No. 416 which gave a summary of the publication as we viewed it here and just yesterday we released another bulletin which I am calling to your attention by the attached enclosure.

I trust you will read over the brief discussion on the Burials of Booth and I should be pleased to learn if you agree with me about the general deduction.

Very truly yours,

Louis A Warren
