Dear Mr Eisenschiml:

Mr Black will not be in the office this week, but I have made a search for the halftones to which you refer. Unfortunately, all the engravings of the Dearborn Publishing Company, which published the Dearborn Independent, were destroyed. It is possible, however, that we can find the photostats from which the engravings were made. We will make every effort to find these, and will give you definite information as soon as possible.

Very truly yours,

E G Hagelthorn
