Dear Mr. Black:-

You may be interested in reading the enclosed two newspaper clippings taken from the Baltimore, Md. "Sun" of Sunday morning, March 6, 1938, relative to contemplated publication of another book on John Wilkes Booth by Mrs. Ella V. Mahoney.

Clipping File

Several years ago, writer visited Tudor Hall, the old Booth estate a few miles north of Bel Air, Md. My wife has relatives living in the vicinity of the estate and we were invited to visit the old home, said relatives being acquainted with the occupants of the house at that time. Little did I think that some years later I would be delving into the affairs of John Wilkes Booth, as I am doing today. My wife is from Baltimore and when visiting there last Sunday, I noticed the article in the newspaper and clipped it, thinking you might be interested.

Yours very truly,
