Springfield Ill

My dear Mr Rankin:

Due to being away from the office, I have been unable to take advantage of your most kind and cheer ul offer to conform with my request for your autograph in my copies of your two books about Lincoln. I hope that it is possible that you will also write something on the title page. Your good right hand many times personally clasped the hand of that man Abraham Lincoln that even the South is beginning to appreciate. This must give you great pleasure to reflect upon. I am posting the books tonight and herewith enclosing postage for their return.

Thank you very much indeed for the copy of the article published in the Illinois State Journal on Lincoln's law office. It was most kind of you to send this to us.

Again accept our best wishes.

Very sincerely yours
