Dear Mr. Cameron:

I inclose part of a page from Journal with one of Col. Boifeuillet's stories.

I believe that James A. Halloman, associate editor of the Constitution, could prepare something for on roads or education in the South—

Mrs. Corra Harris could, also, do you a good turn— and there are others — Wm.

Cole Jones has done some fine editorial work for the Journal —

I am glad to have met you —

Hope you won your case —
in Washington —

With kind regards Sam

Sincerely Yours,

Michael Bryan
