Dear Mr Connolly:

Thanks tremendously for your letter of December 13th. I will write you further about it next week. In the meantime don't bother about the photograph of Blanche Chapman Ford. The pictures we really want of the Fords are John and Harry, which you can procure right there in Washington. This will make it unnecessary for you to contact the grandson in Baltimore.

I will write you about the other pictures within a few days.

Sincerely yours,

F L BLACK
