Dear Sir:

We have been quite interested in some Civil War history in which one of your fellow townsmen, Mr. Wilson D. Kenzie, had a part.

We are attaching a copy of a letter we wrote Mr. Kenzie on April 21st.

Since we did not have Mr. Kenzie's street address we directed the letter to Beloit, trusting that the post office would find him. Thus far we have not received an answer to our letter and would appreciate very much your seeing Mr. Kenzie and getting all the information you can.

Very truly yours
