C 3 Booth

Lexington Ill
May 4th 1925

The Dearborn Indpt

Dear Sirs I just been reading the May 2nd No about John Wilks Booth. Which Reminds me of a man. I cannot Call is name. He was a middle age man) Came to my House. I hired him to huck Corn. He said he was not an extra usker I gave him a job. and on evening Setting round the Stove, we got in conversation and J. W. Booth name came up. I said he was shot in a Barn. He said Booth was not shot. and that He positive knowed that He J. W. Booth was alive and He said He left when the war brote out. He was just out of Colage in Virginia. and Volunteered in the Southern army and went all thru till the Surender of Lee, this was in the year about 1878 or 9

Your Sincerely Joseph Stocks.