Dear Mr Twiss:

Thank you very much indeed for giving me an opportunity to look over a copy of the letter to the Journal and also the affidavit which you made up in connection with the Booth affair. The Francis Wilson spoken of in the editorial has no connection with Clarence True Wilson. Francis Wilson, as you probably remember, is a very famous comedian of twenty or twenty-five years ago. You should be able to find his book on John Wilkes Booth in your local library as it has been out more than a year.

Very truly yours
