Dear Creech:

In a recent book "Lincoln's Last Day" by John W. Starr Jr., is a statement that O. H. Oldroyd, Custodian of the Lincoln Museum, has the original of the following notation signed by A. Lincoln:

"No pass is necessary now to authorize any one to go to and return from Petersburg and Richmond. People go and return just as they did before the war".

Will you please get a photograph of this if possible and any other information about it from Mr. Oldroyd.

Very truly yours
