P. 272

If tricks like this too just pointed out ~~cited~~ will be resorted to to prove a mythical death bed Confession took place what can one judge as to the reliability of all the other unauthorized statements in the book — How about St Helens alleged Confession? There are no affadavits or written statements to substantiate a single word of it. Sources are not given, statements are misquoted — affidavits altered anything done that help prove the point, but even with all

p 272

2 thus, the ~~book~~ author is so inconsistent that these things soon become apparent when different parts of his book are compared without reference to outside material.