P. O. Box 46
D. Monroe Boulevard Station
Dearborn, Michigan

My dear Mr. Black:

This note is sent hastily in order that you may not recognize the card which was enclosed in your copy of the "Heroic Statues in Bronze of Abraham Lincoln." We were not advised that the cards remained in the books, as Mr. Mead passed away some three years ago, and of course the cards should have been removed from the few remaining volumes which were left at the time of his death.

Congratulations on the healthy growth of your penny collection. The last of the month we will have out a Lincoln Lore giving a little story of the Lincoln pennies, which you may wish to file along with your coin card.

It was a pleasure, indeed, to have you and your daughter with us, and we hope you may soon return.

Yours very truly,

Louis A. Warren
