Dear Sir:

Your interesting letter of May 23rd has been held up awaiting the writer's return to the office from an absence of a couple weeks.

We would be glad indeed to receive a set of prints showing Dr Todd's letter, and portrait, and views of the Montauk. Whether we can throw any further light on the incident I do not know. Our information as to who was on the boat has come from statements given out by others of the party and they may have overlooked Dr Todd among the number.

Very truly yours
