Dear Miss Tarbell:-

Herewith is a copy of the February 6th issue of the Dearborn Independent, our Lincoln number. Possibly you will remember that I sent you copies last spring containing some articles by myself on the Assassination. This issue contains another of the series.

I have your "Life of Lincoln" in four volumes, issued by the Lincoln History Society. Does your later two volume edition contain material not to be found in the four?

I am quite anxious to have you write something, with your autograph, in the fly leaf of the first volume of either the one or the other, if you will, but desire to have it in the edition you like best. If it is agreeable and you will advise me which to send, I will forward a volume #1 with the postage for its return.

Very truly yours
