Dear Sir:

We are quite interested in some stories in connection with a Rev. James Glasgow Armstrong, who was formerly a resident of your city and who, we understand, died there in 1891.

The Rev. Dr. Armstrong was thought by a great many people to be John Wilkes Booth, the assassin of President Lincoln. Since Dr. Armstrong was the Episcopal clergyman in Atlanta you should not have much trouble in locating parties who remember the stories circulated about him. We will be glad to have any clippings or stories that you can procure, but we are principally interested in getting a photograph of Dr. Armstrong, if it is at all obtainable.

Dr. Armstrong lived at Baltimore Block, Atlanta and is understood to have been a friend of Ex-Governor Rufas Bullock. The Episcopal Church or some of the people who knew Dr. Armstrong may have a photograph of him. If so, and you can get it we would like to borrow it for just a few days. If more than one photograph can be obtained, taken at different periods, so much the better.

We will certainly appreciate whatever you can do for us in this connection.

Very truly yours
