21

LIEUTENANT DAvid D. DANA

For the Prosecution of Dr. Samuel Mudd.

May 20, 1865 - C.T. Page 88

Testified:-

On Saturday, the day after the assassination of the President, I sent a guard of our men ahead of me to Bryantown, and they arrived about half an hour before me. I arrived there about 1 o'clock. I communicated the intelligence of the assassination, and the name of the assassin, to the citizens; it spread through the village in a quarter of an hour. Some of the citizens asked me if I knew for a certainty it was J. Wilkes Booth, and I told them yes, as near as a person could know any thing.