Dear Mr Creech:

Oldroyd in his Assassination of Abraham Lincoln, opposite page 206, reproduces a picture of the Booth Lot in Green Mount Cemetery, Baltimore, Maryland. Will you obtain this picture from him, if possible, as we would like to use it with our final article?

If he cannot furnish it, will you please have a photographer take a picture of the Booth Lot as it is today indicating on the picture the location of the grave of John Wilkes Booth, which we understand is on the east side of the monument and close up to the same.

Very truly yours
