What authority for statement re Bainbridge?

This is from century Dictionary 1890 but has no acknowledgment of source as made -

The population here given from Bainbridge not correct - To Bainbridge statement refer -

Page — to 8th unto "directing him to the wooded region, which we pointed out to him" Implication here made that they sent Book to our particular place or they could not know later -

What but Bainbridge actually stated that advised him to seek shelter in the woods - In those wooded Regions "you will never be found!"

P 208

Nothing at all said by Bowbridge about Books "Carrying a heavy stick in his hand to support his lame leg."

Why the "abuse of confidence" name to party who states there no a family by the name of Purdy living in neighborhood of Cot's Station?

? Never any such family

Town Dept subp- and The implication made on this page and 214 that the War Dept in 1898 was party to a conspiracy to hide the truth is incontrovertible - Mr Bates
they same reasoning is guilty of protecting and harboring the murderer of Prs. Lincoln - in the concealment and escape and should be treated as an accomplice Page 215-216

Why didn't Mr Bates apply for the reward being so anxious for identification & punish Booth & Helen as John Wilkes Booth? He says in his letter to War Dept that he "has such facts as are conclusive that John Wilkes Booth now lives" - This was 1898 - but the Book plus kept mailing from publishers until 1907 - Furthermore if he knew "Booth now lives" he must have had some idea where he was concealed at the time - But about the ~~time, leaders of the~~ War Dept would seem, by their failure to arrest didn't really know whether Booth was or whether he was dead or alive - p 213 - 218 - Legal reasoning so apparently shallow need no comment - By June process War Dept was far 1865 in not understanding all dreams such

Why does Mr Bates repeat ~~passage~~ the conclusion of Hay's story? of ~~Speaker~~ of the Booth and Herold being in Washington all day the 14th & correspondence between Booth and the accomplices of the letter left by Booth for the mail Intelligencer & the C.T. and gives reference but would have preferred to quote the whole passage Mr Bates' story.

Bates "was allowed to pass the guards"

Hay "Was hailed by a Sentry, but persuaded the Sergeant of the guard that he was returning to his home in Charles County and that he had waited in Washington till the moon should rise. He was allowed to pass". No comment need be made.

Hay does not say, "from the nature of things" Booth could have escaped"

Bates draws this conclusion from third paragraph back page 220 — where Hay says "if Booth had been — Etc —

And he does not say, but that there was no final escape save suicide for the assassin"

Hay Century Jan 1890 P 438 —

"With such devoted aid Booth might have wandered a long way; but there is no final escape but suicide for an assassin with a broken leg. At each painful move the chances of discovery increased."

The reader will easily notice considerable difference in these two statements the change in these statements is on a par with the silly and inane comment "It was this power of foreseeing the possibility of coming events that made Secretary Hay the greatest of diplomats".
