Mr. F.L. Black,
The Dearborn Independent,
Dearborn, Michigan .

Dear Mr. Black:

Thank you most cordially for your letter of the 15th and for sending me the articles about Lincoln's assassination and the story of John Wilkes Booth. I know I am going to read them with the keenest interest as they were evidently prepared with the greatest care and with an eye for popular appeal.

Have you arranged for their publication in book form?

Sincerely yours,
