Mr. F. L. Black -
Detroit Mich:
My dear Mr Black -

I must confess you failed to convince me I my error in Bates did make an offer to Smith at his (Smith's suggestion - but at $1000, would in no way pay off the mortgage on my home can not see how it would help me.

As soon I you have been sure the money why not pay to convince yourself.

It has been examined by an X ray & I have never been in fire but I it, but am sure there must be identification marks that God & not man could make surely the leg would show the broken place & Brother's neck was fractured

or at some time a thumb & eye brow marked things that could not be done after death.
Surely science & Drs could establish the truth.
If you are working for the Public
I am sure they would be glad & have an examination.

Sincerely Madge D. Bates.
