Lincoln Lore

Dear Miss Herendeen:

I read in a magazine recently that about one letter in 300,000 fails to reach its destination. That's a pretty good average for Uncle Sam's mail clerks -- but we think one of your letters to Mr F L Black was one of the unlucky "ones".

Unfortunately, Mr Black did not receive #422, the May 10 issue of Lincoln Lore. If you have an extra copy, may we have it?

Sincerely yours,

E G HAGELTHORN
